

The Safari Collection
P O Box 15565-00503, Nairobi. Kenya

Nairobi, 14 February 2024

TO: the World Law Alliance
RE: Legal Luminary Awards 2024, Sonal Raval

To whom it may concern,

I am honored to recommend Ms. Sonal Raval for the esteemed award you are offering. My endorsement is based on Ms. Raval's contributions to our organization, particularly her exceptional work in assisting us on land lease and ownership regulations in Kenya. Her ability to convey intricate legal concepts with clarity and simplicity has been instrumental in navigating the volatile and rapidly developing legal environment we operate within.

Ms. Raval's approach to the legal challenges we faced was both innovative and profoundly practical. She has a unique talent for dissecting complex legal matters, making them understandable for those of us without a legal background. This skill not only facilitated smoother decision-making processes but also instilled a sense of confidence and clarity in our team. Her efforts have directly led to the successful resolution of numerous issues that were critical to our operations, impacting our work significantly.

Moreover, Ms. Raval's leadership extends beyond mere problem-solving. She has actively contributed to creating a more knowledgeable and cohesive team by sharing her insights and expertise. Her dedication to fostering an environment of learning and development has elevated the legal understanding of our entire staff, enabling us to better anticipate and mitigate potential legal challenges.

Ms. Raval's impact on our organization cannot be overstated. Her work has provided us with a sturdy legal foundation, allowing us to move forward with our projects with confidence. The clarity she has brought to complex legal issues has been a beacon of assurance in an otherwise uncertain legal landscape.

In conclusion, Ms. Raval's profound impact on our organization and her exceptional leadership and communication skills make her an outstanding candidate for this award. Her contributions have not only benefited us directly, but have also set a remarkable example of professionalism and excellence in the legal field.

Thank you for considering my recommendation of Ms. Sonal Raval. I am confident that her achievements and character align with the values and criteria of your award, making her a deserving recipient.

Riccardo Tosi
Chief Development Officer The Safari Collection Nairobi, Kenya

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Riccardo Tosi', with a long horizontal line extending from the end of the signature.